

SCRIP Awards Shortlist 2011

Firecrest Clinical, which was recently acquired by ICON, was shortlisted in the Best Technological Development category for its mobile and web-based technologies.

The annual Scrip Awards acknowledge and applaud the pharmaceutical industry's highest achievers across all parts of the value chain, and recognise both corporate and individual achievement. The awards are open to any research-based pharmaceutical or biotechnology company as well as third party companies that supply services to the pharmaceutical industry.

More information about the Scrip awards, including a full list of the finalists, is available at <http://www.scripintelligence.com/awards/>
